CONCERNS OF THE DISTRICT.

Commissioners linve a Second Conference with the House Appropriations Committee-Case of Foreman Walsh In the conference with the House Approprintions Committee yesterday the Commis sioners discussed the county roads, stree lighting, street sweeping, police and fire department, the extension of the fire alarm service, and harbor affairs. The health dopartment estimates will be the first thing con sidered to-day. Discussion of the school estimakes was postponed yesterday until such time as Supt. Powell can be present, he being detained at home by Hiness.

When the mooted question of Congressional inquiry into the police matters of the District was called to Commissioner Ress attention yesterday his response was that he knew so hing about it personally, but he thought there would be nobedy to object to such investigation in case Congress deemed it a proper subject of inquiry.

vestigation in case Congress deemed it a proper subject of inquiry.

The Commissioners will take no metion in the case of charges preferred by Lawrence Sands against Foreman J. A. Walsh, of the fire department, that course being justified by the statement filed by Attorney Hay, counsel for Mr. Sands, who said that there was no disposition upon the part of the prosecution to have the foreman dismissed, but the case was brought to the attention of the authorities to test the question as to "who was right."

waish was belore the train board, consisting of Assistant Chief William G. Belt and Foremen J. O. Guy and John D. Kurta, upon the charge preferred by Mr. Sands, of persistent trespass and the use of profune and improper language, the trouble arising over a dispute as to the status of a road through Mirthwood place, and leading from Woodley road to Sands static. Mr. Sands contended that the road was private property, and he had been Sands' static. Mr. Sands contended that the road was private property, and he had been in the habit of sending his cows by that outlet to pasture. The cows became trouble-some to Mr. Waish, and he stoned the animals, according to Mr. Sands statement, and otherwise maitreated them. Mr. Sands had the road closed. Believing it to be a public thoroughlare, Mr. Waish "took his are and standshed the fence into something like fire-wood, repeating the offense several times, and told. Sands be had orders to remove his stable.

The case got into the police court upon a harge against Walshof "malicious mischief," ut was not brought to trial, Sands failing to appear.

The trial heard found Walsh guilty of improper conduct, but the case will be permitted to drop. Walsh's record as a member of the force is said to be first-class.

Orders is said to be first-class.
Orders is used yesterday:

The appointment of Miss Florence E. Bes-lev as a nurse in the smallpox service, for duty in the pest hospital, was yesterday ap-proved by the Commissioners, compensation being allowed at the rate of $25 per week, from and including October 29. The resolutions recently adopted by the District officials and employes, in memory of the late Thomas B. Entwiste, inspector of buildings, have been landsomely engrossed and framed for presentation to the family of the deceased. John Lewis, seventy years of age, who was sentenced to the workhouse for illicit liquor selling, wants to be pardoned, and the Com-missioners have been asked to extend elem-ency. The atterney for the District will de-cide whether or not the Commissioners have authority in the matter.

GOSPEL SINGERS' CONCERT.

Moody and Sankey Choir Delighted an Audience of Three Thousand Persons Last Night.

For the second time since the revival services in Pebruary the Moody and Sankey choir, 1,200 voices, last night gave a sacred concert in Convention Hull. An audience of 3,000 persons thoroughly enjoyed the Gospel songs and anthems.

Under the leadership of Percy S. Foster, the big chorus rendered the selections in ex- of cellent style. Save the loss of a few moments before the programme, there was not the slightest delay, and it was only a little past 9 o'c'ock when the last strains of San-key's "Good Night" were sung, and the audice departed. The singers

The singers sents were arranged in tiers at the K-street end of the ball, similar to the seating arrangement during the revival serv-ices. Prof. Fester had his big choir in good control, and the prompt manner in which they responded to the motions of his baton was exceedingly pleasing to the assembly. The net proceeds of the concert amount to about $500, which will be divided among the

They say if his suggestion should be adopted the tendency would be toward a State bank system and a getting away from all national control, as by his plan State banks have the advantage. This is not what sound financiers want. The government should retain a supervisory contral over the lanks, and the tendency to insure stability and to secure uniformity should be to make all banks national ormity should be to make all banks national

FIRE TURNED TO ICE.

Remarkable Phenomenon Witnessed by the Officers of the Steamer Urbino. Baltimone, Md., Dec. 5 .- The officers of the Neptune line steamer Urbino, from Rotter dam, by way of Shields, tell of a queer experience in a gale on November 25. They say that at 9 o'clock in the morning a gale was blowing northwest, accompanied by snow and rain, thunder and lightning.

At that hour a loud report was heard in the air, and an immense ball of fire appeared overhead. Suddenly two explosions louder than the first were heard. After the first of these explosions, the ball became a mass of orked streamers of light,

At the second, scintillating particles spread over the ship aloft and shot in all directions. Large lumps of ice teil on the deck. Several of the men ran to pick them up, but it is said they seemed to disappear and left the men accounted.
